

House Martins

You have no idea about people,

I had a run in with one of the neighbors but I'm ok.

and what they can do,

But I would like to make a statement. My name is Laura Fitzgerald and I live at 1 Ballycullane.

Or what kind of man he is,

I am involved in a dispute over land with my neighbor.

No idea.

You have no idea,

On the morning of the 11th of July, I had just returned from town, having earlier undertaken food shopping in Tralee.

about the bad old days,

In the distance I saw two figures, in the back yard area of our home.

Or the power of the Church,

As I commenced walking towards the back door.

or what my Grandfather went through,

I felt aggressive swooping close to my head, chest and legs.

no idea.

You have no idea,

As I passed through the back door, I heard unnerving, twittering sounds overhead.

the effect bird shit has on freshly painted walls.

After setting my shopping bags down on the kitchen floor,

or about the Department,

I went back outside to look in the yard and saw that there was shit all over my freshly painted house.

And what they can make you do,

I further noted that the construction of a dwelling could be observed overhead, one that had been commenced without my permission, on the back gable of our home.

no idea.

I slept badly that night and, in the morning, I awoke to aggressive chattering outside our bedroom window.

You have no idea,

I feel intimidated in my own home and surveyed constantly. Eyes in the sky, watching our comings and goings, our every move.

about the kind of things that he would do,

The defendant claims that he and his family have been coming here for the past 15 years and therefore, have an easement (a Right-of-Way) over my property to construct said dwelling, and that I (the Claimant), have caused criminal damage and destroyed his dwelling on 4th July of this year. He then quoted the Wildlife Act of 1976 Section 3-part A.

or what kind of man he is,

The defendant states that he is exempt from the Planning Laws of 2000, under the above act and does not need to apply for permission through the local authorities.

no idea.

You have no clue at all,

I am counter claiming that on the 4th of July, although I did attempt to knock off his family home with a telescopic window cleaning pole, I observed that it was vacant at the time.

of the kind of madness that goes on around here.

He is claiming that although his first family had vacated the property, intervening personal matters had delayed the commencement of his second family. The matter is before the courts and a hearing will commence in June of next year.

We'll see what happens.

We'll see what happens.

Our back yard is like an airport.
